Storms Continue As Crews Fight To Retain Roads

Slide on Tahoe Highway Halts Traffic For 24 Hours

A weekend of snow storms that left a total of 27 inches in Truckee, followed on Monday and Tuesday by a heavy rain storm, featured the weather menu for the past week—a week which had old timers recalling the record storms of 1910 and 1938 and which sent worried property owners scurrying for shovels to relieve buildings straining under the heavy weight.

While the fall did not equal those years, the recent precipitation reached a point within .06 of an inch of the seasonal normal for February 1, according to William Curran of the Truckee Forest Service office.

Because of the absorbent texture of the snow which fell ahead of the deluge of rain, damage was minimized, although a heavy slide near Deer Park on the Lake Tahoe highway on Monday night caused considerable trouble and halted traffic for 24 hours while state highway crews concentrated efforts to clear the snow and debris from the thoroughfare.

Several poles on the telephone line were ripped out by the slide and telephone crews spent two days repairing the damage.

M. L. Jennings of Sacramento, division superintendent for the Southern Pacific Company, arrived at the height of the storm to assist in directing snow removal on the main line. Traffic was delayed at times but continued nearly on schedule as crews, under the direction of Dave Anderson, local roadmaster, battled day and night with all available equipment.

The same situation prevailed on Highway 40. While the road was kept reasonably free of snow, visibility at times prevented movement of traffic which was slowed to a standstill. All crews worked throughout the storm without more than a minimum of rest. Heavy equipment was pushed to a breaking point. Small slides were removed as fast as they occurred and traffic continued at a near-normal pace. The men worked under the personal supervision of Superintendent T. T. Buell.

Curran's report shows that a total of 144 inches of snow have fallen in the Truckee district during the season with 38 inches on the ground at present. This compares with a 90.50-inch total on the same date last year.

Precipitation, which virtually assures sufficient water for the coming season, now totals 13.08 inches, 5.04 being recorded during the past week. The total for this same date last year was 11.65 inches, while the total for the entire 1948-49 season was 26.91 inches, Curran said.

The lowest temperature recorded during the past week was 10 degrees below zero and highest was 57.

POSTAL RECEIPTS AT LOCAL OFFICE SHOW GOOD GAIN

Indicating the steady growth of Truckee and vicinity, the post office here again during 1949 showed an increase in stamp sales and box rentals.

In making the announcement, Mrs. E. C. Bavier, Truckee postmaster, said that each year the local office shows a healthy increase and this is taken as one of the best barometers of the community's development.

During 1949, the Truckee office reported a gross $13,902.98 in stamp sales and box rents as compared to the 1948 figure of $13,586.84. Money orders for 1949 totalled $185,883.64, Mrs. Bavier said.

Brunk Bankrupt Sale Slated for Month End

Trustees in bankruptcy have filed notice of petition for sale of real estate and personal property in Truckee in the case of Charles I. Brunk and Dolly L. Brunk. The case is being handled in the district court of Oregon and bids for the property to be sold after a court order is issued will be received until January 31.

The property includes a lot in Gateway Park, a service station near the Cottage Hotel and all furniture and personal effects at the Cottage Hotel in Truckee.

Traffic Deaths Show Decline For Past Year

Total Number of Mishaps Show Upward Trend, Records Show

There were 10 fatal motor vehicle accidents in the Truckee area of the California Highway Patrol during 1949, as compared to 12 for the preceding year, according to a report compiled by William Gautsche, traffic officer in charge of the local squad.

The Truckee area extends from the Nevada state line to Rainbow and includes the North Tahoe district.

The report shows there were 204 reported accidents for the past year as compared to 165 in 1948.

There were 189 persons injured in 1949, the report shows, while during 1948 169 were hurt.

One interesting sidelight reveals that a fifth, or 41, of the reported accidents involved trucks. This despite the fact that cars exceed trucks in number close to 20 to one during most months of the year.

Gas Blamed In Woman's Death

Asphyxiation was blamed for the death of Mrs. Idonie Shelton, 33, Herlong, whose body was taken from a blazing car which had been driven by her husband, John, three miles east of Truckee Monday night at 11:45 o'clock.

Constable N. F. Dolley was called to the scene by Willis Hall of Kings Beach, division highways employee, who came by the car and saw the blaze. Hall stopped and pulled both Mr. and Mrs. Shelton from the front seat. The Truckee ambulance rushed Shelton to a hospital at Reno but by the time they arrived, the Herlong mechanic's helper had regained consciousness and was returned to Truckee by Erving Waters, the ambulance driver.

State Patrolmen John Stinton and Lynn Lardiner, who were working in the area, were called and assisted in the investigation. Patrolman Gautsche said he talked with Shelton near Donner Summit at 8 o'clock the same night and later was called to handle the case for the patrol here.

Dolley, in explaining what he believed to have been the case, said the Sheltons evidently left Truckee about 11 p.m. At a point three miles east of here, the car ran into a snowbank and had been backed across the highway. A short circuit developed and with the windows of the 1936 model car all tightly closed, the poisonous fumes soon filled the car, causing both occupants to lose consciousness.

The flames continued to mount and Mrs. Shelton was severely burned on her body below the waist and on one side of her face and breasts, Dolley said. The fire was all on the one side of the car, it was evident, and the driver suffered only minor burns on his right leg. Hall applied a fire extinguisher to the car and finally pulled the battery cable loose, thus keeping the car from being demolished.

It is believed by Dolley that Mrs. Shelton was dead when taken from the car and her husband was near death. The fresh air revived him, however, and when he returned to Truckee he was able to answer questions but was still vague about details after they left Truckee.

The couple had been visiting with friends in Stockton since Saturday.

The body of Mrs. Shelton was taken to the Truckee Colonial Mortuary and Shelton, who was without funds, asked to be able to spend Monday night in the Truckee jail to avoid the storm.

In Hospital—

George Fraley, Soda Springs resident, was taken to a Reno hospital yesterday for observation following a recent illness.

Teams Arriving To Participate In Local Races

Alaskan Musher, Team Here to Compete in Dog Derby

At least nine local teams, plus several outside entries, will feature the Sierra Nevada Dog Derby events here February 10, 11 and 12.

The program is rapidly taking form and the three-day affair promises considerable interest and numerous thrills. The track is being prepared in the same location as last year but at least one side race, to Donner Lake and return, will add to the fun.

Al Haltom of Anchorage, Alaska, with his team of nine huskies and Samoyedes has arrived and is being quartered at Truckee Resort, which is sponsoring the team. Haltom's team will led by his famous lead dog, Hedy, the singing and dancing female.

A number of novelty events, including a race between Lloyd Van Sickle's team of speed hounds and a race horse ridden by Kenneth Torri of Sierraville for a quarter mile, are on the program. Kid races, ski joring, dances, night skiing, jumping and other special events, highlighted by the Snow Queen contest, will be featured, Ed Crandall, chairman, said.

Jim Morgan, whose teams were wintered at Soda Springs in 1945-46, will offer a lot of stiff competition to Van Sickle and other mushers. Morgan will drive a mixed team of huskies and Samoyedes. Morgan and Van Sickle have donated pups which will be given away during the derby.

Other entries expected soon are those from Lowell Fields of Gooding, Idaho, Major John Rodman of West Yellowstone, Harry Johanson of Tahoe City, Lewis Price of Idaho and several others.

Teams will be taken to the bay area Monday by Van Sickle, Morgan and others in an advertising trip.

March of Dimes Starts As Funds Badly Needed

County Asked to Raise Less Than Half of '49 Expense

Ray Hodge, Nevada County chairman of the March of Dimes, announced this week that preparations are complete to start the annual drive for funds immediately.

The quota for the county has been set at $11,000 but as yet Truckee's quota has not been announced. However, it has been announced that during last year $23,216 was spent of polio in Nevada County. In reporting this Hodge said:

"The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has come across for Nevada County, and now is our chance to come across for the foundation."

Truckee was fortunate in not having one single case of polio last year but the machinery is all set up in case local children become victims and it is pointed out that it is far better to spend a few dollars preventing the disease than many times the donations in combating even a single case. During 1949 there were 37 people stricken with polio in this county.

In Truckee, Walter Barrett of the Sierra Sun will again be the chairman while Mrs. Adele Sturtevant will occupy a similar position in Nevada City.

Red Vind of Ski Inn on Donner Summit has volunteered to have his resort used as a depository and will aid in collecting. Others are asked to also do what they can to bring this area's total above the quota.

ONE WIN, ONE LOSS OVER PAST WEEK FOR LOCAL SQUAD

The Colfax Fireballs did it again.

The visitors, traditional rivals of the Truckee American Legion basketball squad, Saturday night edged the locals 62 to 58 to snap an eight-game winning streak. The margin of victory came when Truckee failed to sink 20 out of 28 free throw chances.

In the highest scoring contest on the local court Saturday night the Truckee quintet broke into the win column again, knocking off Reno Mattress 72 to 61. The visitors' O'Done was high point man with 23 and Wakefield of Truckee made 20.

On Saturday night the local hoopsters will tackle the Mervin Gardiners VFW team of Reno. An innovation of a Sunday afternoon game will be tried here at 2:30 January 22 when Truckee takes on the powerful Capucci and Weaver team of Fallon. To date the latter team has won 15 out of 16 games, while their hosts now have 9 wins in 11 starts. Next Wednesday night, the North Truckee Ropers of the Reno League will come here and on the following Saturday Truckee will be host to the Carson City Capitols.

Mrs. Cardinal Resigns Post Office Position

Mrs. Rolland Sutton is replacing Mrs. Heslin Cardinal, who resigned from her position in the U.S. Post Office here, according to Postmaster Elizabeth Bavier.

Mrs. Sutton has had several years of business experience in a large concern at Stockton.

Sutton is associated with the Stone Garage where he is operating a tow truck. The couple is living in the Truckee Motel.

Highway Groups Seek Unity For Western Travel

"Steamroller" Charge Is Made Against Move By Dissenters

A concerted effort is being made by a number of groups and individuals to expand the Highway 40 Association to embrace Highway 50 and other routes leading into California.

This is revealed in press dispatches from Winnemucca, Nevada, Reno, Colfax and other centers.

At the meeting of the Highway 40 Association, held recently at Wells, Nevada, the story from Winnemucca charges that interests foreign to the Highway 40 Association attended and voted. It was also charged in the story that the meeting was scheduled to start at 2:30 p.m. and as a matter of fact it began at noon with "pressure" groups using the interim to "steamroller" the unification plan.

The Humboldt County Chamber of Commerce indicated a cautious attitude toward endorsing the expansion plan under a new name and embracing other routes. The chamber, the story says, adopted a resolution strongly favoring retention of the Highway 40 Association as a separate unit and withheld final decision until a definite program is presented.

The Reno chamber, according to the Nevada State Journal, heartily endorsed the expansion plan, while the news story from Colfax indicates the same feeling exists there. As a matter of fact, the Colfax Record says Deputy District Attorney Gillio is preparing the by-laws of the new organization and that a meeting is to be held within the next three weeks at Reno where a board of directors will be named.

Hans Benhard of Colfax was named as public relations manager for the new organization, the Record reports.

HOSPITAL BONDS CHECK ARRIVES AT TREASURER'S

A check for $145,441.68 was received this week by Country Treasurer Elma Hecker, completing payment for the $150,000 issue of the Tahoe Forest Hospital bonds.

A "good faith" check for $5,000 was received December 6.

The sum is the district's share in constructing a new hospital at Gateway Park. Balance of the cost will be shared by state and federal governments.

Payment includes $108 in premiums and $333.68 accrued interest.

Bonds were purchased by Dean Witter and Company of San Francisco. The transaction was handled by the Nevada City branch, Bank of America.

Charles R. Heller, Truckee, is president of the district and Ted D. Barrett, Kings Beach, secretary.

Unsafe Road Conditions Close District's Schools

With conditions unsafe if not totally impossible, the schools of the Tahoe Truckee Joint Unified School District were closed because of storm conditions on Wednesday, January 11, Monday the 16th and Tuesday the 17th. These schools include those in Truckee, Kings Beach and Tahoe City.

The Donner Summit school, also in the district, closed tentatively until March.

It is to be hoped that this year's March of Dimes will really be a March of Dollars, for there has never been a greater need for funds to care for the polio victims and to aid in the research in prevention of the dread disease. In the near future the drive for funds will open in Truckee and individuals and organizations are asked to contribute freely so that Truckee may again surpass its quota and show the world that in cases of emergency, we are never found delinquent. All the money collected is used without regard to race, creed or color for those requiring help. Plan now to give generously.

Occasionally we hear some one say that they do not patronize local merchants because the merchants do not carry the items they want, and we wonder if this is not a little far fetched at times. It is true that in a smaller city there are many things which cannot be carried in stock but there are very few items which cannot be ordered and delivered by the local merchant if he is given the opportunity. May we suggest that next time you call on your local store for an article which he does not carry immediately in stock that you give him a chance to procure it for you? It will save a lot of trouble on your part and provide the merchant with his legitimate profit.

Two Seasons For Fishing Proposed

California fish and game commissioners are studying recommendations for the 1950 hunting and fishing regulations which will be definitely decided at a meeting in Los Angeles on January 27th.

The findings of the commissioners are expected to be announced prior to the meeting. H. H. Hodson, president, and Clarence Osburn, vice president, of the Truckee Outdoor Sportsmen, are planning to attend the meeting.

During the recent session in San Francisco, the board heard a recommendation for a double trout season, starting May 30 in ten central Sierra counties and on the Saturday nearest May 1st for the rest of the state, including Tahoe, Boca and Donner Lakes.

The local sportsmen have gone on record as favoring no change in last year's season and bag limits on either fish or game.

STORE KEEPER, S.P. WIN RELAY RACE WITH FAST STORK

The stork and the storm had a close race Tuesday, January 10th, and the stork won by a matter of 20 minutes with the aid of a Southern Pacific flanger and the able services of Otto Frederick of Norden Store.

It all started when Frederick received a telephone call from Troy, a section house on the Southern Pacific, asking if he would be available to take Mrs. Felix Trujillo to the hospital at Reno. Despite the storm and icy roads, Frederick readily agreed but Troy is a long way from the highway and the stork was flying fast.

Two Southern Pacific officials from Norden boarded the only available equipment—a flanger—and hurried to Troy, took Mrs. Trujillo aboard and met the Frederick vehicle at the crossing. After a rather thrilling but otherwise uneventful ride, Mrs. Trujillo landed at St. Mary's Hospital just 20 scant minutes ahead of her infant daughter.

Reynolds of Truckee, has been chosen by local organizations to represent this immediate district in the Snow Queen contest, a feature of the forthcoming Dog Derby on February 10, 11 and 12. North Tahoe

by T. BURROUGHS

Mrs. Arney, our local Girl Scout troop leader, announces that 20 girls will receive their pins next Saturday, January 21. Their investituure and bazaar will be held at the same time at Carpenters' Hall. Weather conditions did not permit this performance last weekend according to schedule. The girls will have a white elephant table and will sell their own handiwork. There will be a ballet by Barbara Parr and other entertainment by the group. Re-registration will begin February 1 and continue for two weeks. This will be your last chance before September.

Little Sheryn Arney was very unhappy about the heavy snow that fell on her 5th birthdate last Monday. A party had been planned but had to be given up. It isn't always like this, Sheryn, so look forward to a bigger and better party next January 15.

A letter from Tex Jones reveals that Harvey and Pearl Martin are leaving Palm Springs due to lack of work and heading for Tucson, Arizona, to finish out the winter. Mel Miller is back at the lake to do some refrigeration work at Sam's Market in Tahoe City. Vera remains at Whittier in the meantime. The Doug Free's post carded from St. Louis saying they are on their way back from the east and will stop in Phoenix for a while before returning to the lake. Harry Stubley wrote, to Tex, he's working in San Francisco for the rest of this winter. Tex has visited with Mildred and Monty Beesley at their home in Torrance and finds them busy painting and repairing an apartment house that they own there. Mildred experienced one of those home accidents not too rare. While lighting a gas stove just before Christmas an explosion occurred, sending flames into her face. Fortunately the burns were not deep and Mildred recovered quickly. The Beesleys and Tex are getting together to attend the races at Santa Anita where Tex hopes to win a million—or two. Tex and Peg dislike very much the fact that many travelogs showing the beauties of everything in the country but our own bewitchingly beautiful Lake Tahoe, which is second to none, flit across their television screen. Also they have a 15 minute show telling of places to ski—every place except Tahoe. Tex promises to write a letter asking why and I'll bet he does it, too.

We've been pretty well snowed in here for days, in fact our car has not been moved in two weeks. First came the swirling snow storm. For a few days it looked as if we would have a wonderful ski run—then came the rains! We hope for snow again. These rains may be good for the forest but they make hazardous the slide areas.

Ed and Virginia McCoy are again operating their Home Cafe in Kings Beach.

Everette and Virginia Mason of Silver Sands resort are away for a two weeks vacation in the bay area. Constable Dick Lavery is keeping an eye on the place.

Ruth and Richard Lavery are living and looking after the Rayburn home while Jerry and John enjoy a two months vacation in other parts of the country.

Bob Dennis took his wife Dotty across the pass during the early part of our recent storm anticipating the early arrival of the first bud on their family tree. No news since.

If one must be snowed in or blocked off by slides I can think of no nicer place for it than Lake Tahoe. 'Tis inconvenient though when you want to go to Truckee.

The adult education class in practical English had to be postponed because of unfavorable weather conditions. Next class will be held Friday evening, January 20, weather permitting.

A letter from Mrs. Wayne C. Hunt of Grants Pass, Oregon, hints that they'd like to stay in next winter if winter sports show an increased interest in our section of Tahoe.

A headon collision at Incline Beach last Thursday week resulted in a total loss of cars driven by Eugene Jarvis of Eugene's Chalet and Mr. Foster who is associated with a meat company in Carson City. Mrs. Pearl Stuart, sister of Jarvis, suffered a broken left leg and is confined at the Tahoe-Carson Hospital. Mrs. Blanche McFarland, employed as cook at the chalet, was badly shaken up, luckily suffered no serious injury. Eugene has a sprained wrist and painful bruises around the chest where contact was made with the steering wheel. Mrs. Stuart will remain in the hospital for several days. Dr. John Keys was called to the scene of the accident.

HARJES PROMOTED BY S.P. IN DEISEL PROGRAM

ROSEVILLE— William J. Harjes, Southern Pacific locomotive engineer, was appointed assistant road foreman of engines for the Sacramento division of the rail line. L. E. Longergan, division master mechanic, said the appointment is in line with the company's program in changing from steam to deisel. Harjes is assigned to instruct engine crews in the new locomotives.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

by EARL G. WATERS

SACRAMENTO —(W. N. S.)— Anyone who thinks the forthcoming race for Governor is a penny ante game had best take another look.

There are big stakes involved. The whole national picture for 1952 will revolve around what happens in California this year.

For if Warren can defeat James Roosevelt he is almost a lead pipe cinch to be the Republican presidential nominee in 1952.

On the other hand if Roosevelt is the victor he, also, will be on his way to national prominence.

Those are the stakes. A Republican victory in 1950 points to a national Republican victory in 1952. A Democratic victory this year almost guarantees a Democratic sweep in the national picture two years hence.

This is something new for California. Never before in its history has it been cast in such an important role.

Don't think the candidates have overlooked this. Both Warren and Roosevelt know the stakes they are playing for.

So, too, does President Truman. And reliable sources from Washington report Truman is ready to deal with Roosevelt and patch up their old quarrel.

Regardless of who wins it is now certain that California is coming into its own nationally. For neither Warren nor Roosevelt nor any other bidder for national prominence can, in the future, fail to recognize the importance of the west.

One of the outstanding men in the Warren administration is Clifford Peterson, commissioner of the California Highway Patrol.

A former San Diego police chief, Peterson was selected by Warren to head the highway patrol when it was reorganized into a department of its own in 1947.

On the job less than two years, Peterson has demonstrated his ability. Highway travel today is safer despite greatly increased automobile registration and automobile miles traveled.

But Peterson has been under considerable heat from various groups from time to time.

There has been criticism of his policy of painting the patrol cars white so they can be easily detected. Peterson has defended this position on the grounds the patrol is to prevent accidents and not make arrests by sneaking up on unwary motorists.

He has also been criticised among the ranks of the patrolmen. Most of this, however, comes from the older patrolmen who want to go back to the old days of hiding in a shady spot and occasionally swooping out to make an arrest. Today the cars are patrolling the highways where everyone can see them. Peterson declares this is what prevents accidents and not the occasional hap-hazard system of arrests once followed.

His record stands on the fact that the accident and death rate on California highways has been reduced.

CATTLE

The early Spanish used cattle for many, many things. For instance, they used the hides of the cow for sombreros, boots, chaps and leather vests for the men. The leather chaps were used to protect their legs from sharp bushes. They used the tallow to make candles for their light. The early Spanish used the cows' meat for beef steaks and drank the milk.

9,000 Contacts Per Mile

As a six-cylinder car rolls over each mile, the whirling rotor in the distributor must make nearly 9,000 contacts. Only a material that is highly resistant to oxidation and erosion by the intense spark can be used to make rotors. Monel has proved an excellent material for rotor arms, and as a result many manufacturers specify this alloy.

Mercury Slides to New Low, Six Feet of Snow in 9 Days

TAHOE CITY— This week residents of Tahoe City felt the coldest temperature of the winter to date and the wettest snow storm of the year. Sunday's low of nine below zero was even lower than anything recorded the previous year, when a low of six below was hit in February. The temperature did a quick turnabout the same day which resulted in a comparatively warm day and heavy wet snow snowfall on Sunday night and Monday. Total snowfall for the previous nine days measured six feet.

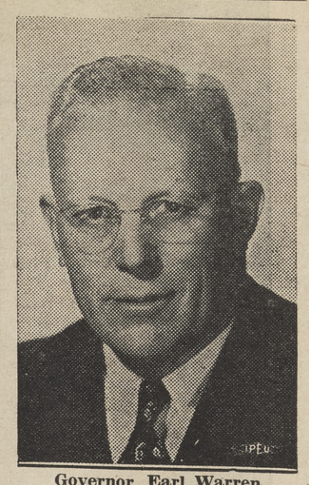
The unit will be known as Lake Tahoe Lodge and will have its headquarters at the south end of the lake. It will meet in a lodge room of the American Legion Building near Tahoe Valley.

Willard Buckley is worshipful master-elect for the new lodge which will be formally institued in ceremonies to be conducted by Grand Master Ellsworth Meyer.

Since its founding in 1910, the Boy Scouts of America has enrolled 16,500,000 boys and leaders.

Warren Urges March of Dimes Support



Governor Earl Warren

Governor Earl Warren, long an active supporter of the March of Dimes and its honorary chairman for California of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, has called on the citizens of the state to support the 1950 March of Dimes appeal.

The Governor's proclamation announcing the opening of the campaign last Monday, January 16, follows:

"Modern science has made great strides in the fight against disease but we have yet to win the battle against the scourge of infantile paralysis. In fact, the year just past was the blackest in the history of this dread disease with more than 42,000 cases in the United States.

"The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has for many years conducted its annual March of Dimes campaign to raise funds to pay for the expensive treatment needed to counteract the effects of infantile paralysis and bring its victims back to health. Without the March of Dimes only a few could afford the treatment it is making available to thousands of men, women and children throughout the nation.

"In addition to paying the costs of treatment in individual cases, March of Dimes contributions help to finance a research program which can be the means of eventually eradicating this terrible disease from our homes.

"Two years ago California was forced to rely heavily upon the National Foundation when it had an unprecedented number of cases of infantile paralysis. Although we were fortunate during 1949 in having fewer cases than other parts of the country, we have no way of knowing when our state might be hard hit again. If such an attack should come we have the satisfaction of knowing that the National Foundation stands ready to aid us.

"It is a matter of vital concern to every Californian that the program of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis not be curtailed. Therefore, I, Earl Warren, Governor of California, do hereby proclaim Monday, January 16th, 1950, as the opening day of the March of Dimes campaign, and I urge all of the people of our state to contribute generously for this essential work."

High School Ski Meet Re-set For This Coming Weekend

TAHOE CITY— With better than six feet of new snow in a nine day perior, the Tahoe-Squaw Valley-Truckee ski area is well prepared for heavy ski traffic the rest of the season.

All-weather skiers in the vicinity took advantage of the new snow the first few days but had to let several of the more stormy later days go untested. The 17 inch fall on Friday, the unlucky 13th, was responsible for making the area temporarily semi-isolated and caused the cancellation of several ski meets.

Among these were the high schools' meet at Squaw Valley and the Sugar Bowl meet. The former tournament, under the auspices of the Sierra Nevada Interscholastic Ski Federation, will be held at Squaw Valley on January 21.

Road conditions prevented the arrival of weekend skiers until Sunday. With opening of the highways, the area operated at capacity. At Squaw Valley, several hundred skiers enjoyed ideal conditions on base-packed, powder-topped snow and bright, clear weather.

At Granlibakken, the same conditions was enjoyed and the contestants in the weekly cross-country race, most of whom had raced in a light snowfall the preceding week, reported much better times. Arner Gustafson, who won the prior race with a time of 18 minutes for the two mile course, cut his time to 15:30. Jim Baker won this week's race, Gustafson being ineligible having one race for the month already to his credit.

Others racing were Jimmie Morhain, Leonard Fuson, Jay Stuart, Ned Stuart and Gerald Waters.

File Suit in Protest Over Tahoe Street Closure

PLACERVILLE— Eight owners of property in Al Tahoe's Townsite at Lake Tahoe have brought suit in the El Dorado County superior court contesting an order of the county supervisors authorizing abandonment of a portion of San Jose Avenue in the townsite.

The supervisors, by a 3 to2 vote on December 6 approved a petition of Frank Globin asking abondonment of the street. Globin, testimony showed, has erected a house on the portion of the street ordered abandoned.

The plaintiffs in the court action are Dr. Wm. B. Schneider, Raymond H. Jones, Lester G. Hunt and P. L. Lyhne, who own property on San Jose Avenue; George Mattis, M. J. Ferrari, Carl T. Byrd and Stanton Meyer, who own property in the townsite. Globin and the board of supervisors are defendants.

The complaint sets forth that San Jose Avenue has been a public street since November 6, 1917, when the supervisors adopted an amended map of Al Tahoe subdivision.

It is charged Globin, in 1946, erected a brick building in the street and was warned by Mattis at the time that he was building on county property. It also is stated the building interferes with plaintiffs' ingress and egress to their property.

It is set forth the supervisors in November 1948, April and October, 1949 ordered action taken to remove the building but that nothing was done.

Globin petitioned the board last November to abandon a portion of San Jose Avenue and it was stated that subsequently, despite protests, the board ordered the abandonment. By so doing, it is charged, the board deprived the plaintiffs of valuable property rights.

AID TO AGED

Applications for aid as needy aged in Nevada County dropped to seven during November, 1949, compared with 73 for January, 1949, California Taxpayers' Association reports. Aged aid case load in the county for November was 893, compared with 667 for the preceding January.

Have Your Car Ready Before Entering Winter Traffic

Motors which have been standing in the cold all night should be warmed up before the car is moved and frosted windshields must be cleared before entering traffic, warns Clifford E. Peterson, commissioner of the California Highway Patrol.

"You can't peer through a peep hole in a windshield, pump a choke button, coax sluggish gears and maneuver a car safely through traffic all at once," he said. "These things can be done much better and with less danger to you while the machine is at the curb or in the driveway."

Winter drivers who must operate at night in cold areas were warned about the long hours of darkness and the possibility of quick overnight freezing.

"It takes less time to prepare for safe driving now than it does to fill out an accident report later," Peterson added. "Haste wastes as much time in traffic as anywhere else."

Summit Scene

by FRAN COUILLARD

The annual costume party and Soda Springs Ski Corporation party at Beacon Hill was a whopping success. The same ingenuity was manifested this year as last. Most of the mountain gentlemen came as mountain ladies. Included in this group were two gentlemen from the forest service, Max Williamson, who made a charming lady, and Tony Rogina who looked like Mammy Yokum of the comic strip. Lonny Goss, also in skirts, had an overpowering and precariously balanced bouquet of flowers on his chapeau. Elmo Moriano wore his last year's costume—beret, embroidery-trimmed plaid peddle pushers and peasant type blouse. Betty and Edvi Aro were truly frontiersmen in their buckskins. Godie Schoetz came as some sort of Wee Willie Winkle — pink flannel nightie, pink flannel bonnet which tied under his chin and candle in a candle stick. Not to stop at this, Godie had a small folding mattress on his back to carry out the idea that Wee Willie was ready for bed. Jerry Jansen carried out the theme of the popular song by wearing a lei of coconuts around his neck and singing "I've Got a Lovely Bunch of Coconuts." Don Wallace was pushed in on a dolly resplendent in yards of bandages. John Carl, with his makeup, successfully resembled an old hobo. We wish we had the time and space to further describe the costumes of the 200 guests who were there assembled. We modestly admit to carrying off a prize with our cave lady outfit and give thanks to John Carl for the use of his black and white calf skins, the Mildred Scarborough for the sewing up thereof, to Roy King for the use of his super-duper size french whip which was wrapped in burlap for our cave lady club, to Peg Travis for helping us make up even to putting liquid shoe polish on our legs and for the castor oil in our hair we thank Loynd's Truckee Drug. Our "bone" jewelry was merely plastic shower curtains and plastic clothespins. And for the benefit of those who thought I might be cold, will say that we give thanks to Art for a pair of his "longies" cut short. We can't stop reminiscing until we mention that Bud Horak looked awfuully cute with hair in pin curls and a plastic apron about his neck, as though he might be just ready to step under a beauty shop dryer.

The Donner Ski Ranch announces that their open house will be Thursday, January 19, with everybody invited. Under the capable direction of Bud Walton, new and old friends will gather for an enjoyable evening with dancing adding to the festivities.

Over the past weekend, many, many guests but not fuull houses. Those who started their regular weekend trek to the Sierra found themselves blocked at Baxter's with the report "road blocked." Those that didn't turn back for home and remained all night sitting in their cold cars awaiting the "road opened" came on to find every available parking place full of snow. Was kind of rough for awhile but the State Highway maintenance department came through as usual in spite of grueling, heart breaking hours of labor on a drifted highway and made enough cuts in the "angel cake" that was the Summit to squeeze the hundreds of cars into wedges that had been cut therein and skiing went on.

Little Nancy Williamson, the forest ranger's daughter of Big Bend, has been chosen by the officers of the Community Club to represent this entire area as the reigning mountain queen for the forthcoming Sierra Nevada Dog Derby. Nancy works at her new job with vigor for this sevent year old has been instructed that for every vote that is sold to help her win, a certain percentage of the proceeds goes twoard the new Donner Trail Elementary School Curtain fund. The Summit area is pround to sponsor the youngster and all are working as hard as possible to sell the number of tickets which will help her win the contest. Early in the evening of the costume party, Nancy, as pretty as a picture in a new ski outfit, was brought in and introduced as the queen contestant. About that time Lloyd Van Sickle and Tom LaRocca, returning from their trip to Nevada City, brought in a dog team and Elmo's party was turned into a booster party for the Sierra Nevada Dog Derby and if the enthusiasm shown at the party is any criterion, we know the Dog Derby will be a tremendous success.

Soda Springs Hotel saw several groups of the old skiing crowd this past weekend, interspersed by members of the Gregorian Club of San Francisco. Thirty-one of them, led by Father Berry, got off buses at Colfax and were transported to Soda Springs by train. However, the specials made it up the hill on Sunday to take them back. Also seen at the hotel was Olive Fenton, women's golf champion of northern California. Ellyn Flynn, Nancy Miester and Bill Henderson also had themselves a time this past weekend.

The crowd at Beacon Hill and Donner Summit Lodge were their same old gang. The ski clubs didn't have their usual terrific attendance due to half of them returning home in the face of the storm that was raging.

We received a letter from our mother, now vacationing in southern California, in which was enclosed several newspaper pictures of the great blizzard raging at Soda Springs. Should interest our soutehrn California friends in northern California skiing, for where there is a blizzard now there is bound to be good skiing afterwards.

Tradition is Upheld As Tahoe Mail Goes On As Other Traffic Stalls

TAHOE CITY— In keeping with tradition, the mail has managed to get through at Tahoe City in spite of most trying conditions. With heavy snowfall, high winds and icy roads, the community has several times been semi-isolated, especially when the foregoing conditions were accompanied by snow plow breakdowns. With the state highway closed off-and-on to regular traffic, mail came through via four-wheel drive vehicles.

Slides, caused by Monday night rains, prevented even these latter from gettig through. Mail was brought to one side of the slides from Truckee, carried across the slides by men on foot and shuttled on into Tahoe City by truck.

Olander Home Is Scene of Pink, Blue Party

TAHOE CITY— A pink and blue shower was given by Mrs. Nola Olander and Mrs. Charles Henrikson at the Olander home Friday in honor of Mrs. Richard Carnell of Tahoe City. Attending were Mesdames Rodney Yeakel, Herbert Obexer, Lynn Kishbaugh, Norman Dewhurst, Robert Stark, Bert Brolund, Bill Jenkinson, Gwenn Ralphs and Miss Carolyn Bolton, in addition to the honoree and hostesses. The honoree was presented with a bassinet. Following the shower was a luncheon which included a cake decorated with pink and blue flowers and a baby motif.

The guests, coming from Tahoe City, Homewood, Tahoe Park, Pineland and Big Chief, found their departure delayed by the heavy snow storm.

Tahoe Civic Groups Have Meetings Curtailed

TAHOE CITY— Adversely affected by the week's storms were the many civic organizations of Tahoe City. Among those cancelling meetings last week were the Lake Tahoe Ski Club, the Women's Club of Tahoe, the American Legion and the Rotary Club. The latter two held meetings which were informal because of sparse attendance.

"Human Growth" Movie Is Shown for Adults

TAHOE CITY— Shown at the Tahoe Lake School last Thursday night was the health education movie "Human Growth." Presented for interested adults only, the picture was evaluated in a parent-teacher discussion lead by E. V. O'Rourke, district superintendent Other pictures of the series will be presented for parent-teacher appraisal and discussion. After parent preview and approval, it is contemplated, the pictures will be worked into the school curricula.

NEW EMPLOYEE

TAHOE CITY— The Tahoe-Truckee Joint Unified School District welcomed a new member into the district's official family. Miss Edna Rivard from Reno began her new duties as bookkeeper and stenographer for the district on Sunday, January 15.

Folk Dancers Brave Snow To Attend Session

TAHOE CITY— The weekly folk dancing class held at the Tahoe Lake School saw a good turnout last Thursday in spite of stormy weather and poor driving conditions. Most popular dances enjoyed by the 25 pupils present were the Virginia Reel, a Mexican Waltz and some old-fashioned squares. The adult class, conducted by Mrs. Wayne Poulsen of Squaw Valley, is open to all interested adults without charge.

Tarzan

by EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS

AS THE SCIENTISTS PREPARED A DIVER TO LOOK FOR THE TREASURE, RUNDI, THE CHIEF'S SON, CAME TO THE LAKE TO SWIM. CLEVELAND ORDERED A DIVER TO DROWN THE BOY BEFORE THEIR OPERATIONS WERE REVEALED.

--AS THE DIVER PULLED HIM BENEATH THE LAKE'S SURFACE.

STRUGGLING IN THE GRIP OF TONGA, RUNDI'S SCREAMS WERE ABRUPTLY CHOKED OFF-----

SEPARATED FROM THE PAGOMBA HUNTERS, TARZAN TURNED BACK.

NEAR THE VILLAGE, HE PICKED UP THE SCENT OF HORTA THE BOAR.

COMING SUDDENLY UPON HORTA, HE WAS ABOUT TO LAUNCH AN ARROW, WHEN A DISTANT SHRIEK DIVERTED HIS ATTENTION.

985

LEAPING ACROSS THE LEDGE, TARZAN TOOK OFF IN A LONG, SLANTING DIVE FOR THE SPOT WHERE THE BOY HAD VANISHED.

HOGARTH

--HE CAUGHT A GLIMPSE OF TWO WILDLY THRASHING ARMS---

--DISAPPEARING BENEATH THE LAKE'S SURFACE.
